

AMEDEI SELECTED CRU CHOCOLATES AT VINCENTS

The "crus" come from individual production areas and, like grapes, are the product of a particular climate and sunshine in a particular region and have their own individual characteristics and distinctive flavours. They are the most immediate and "wild" expression of the cocoa bean. The raw material arrives pure, the aroma has a bite of strength and the acidity of the flavour is intense, giving way to a clean, fresh after taste. The crus come from individual plantations:

- TRINIDAD: with flavors of walnut husk and vanilla cocoa, with faint notes of wood and bark.
- MADAGASCAR: captivating full acidic flavour with a vague hint of menthol, leaving a slight spiciness at the finish.
- JAMAICA: sensation of citrus and candied citron rind, butter, fruit preserve. Persistent on the palate, rich yet not bitter.
- GRENADA: delicate, unaggressive with an extraordinary lack of bitterness, creamy, extremely elegant and balanced.
- ECUADOR: flavours of green tea with a touch of pistachio, almondine sauces and a hint of celery at the finish.
- VENEZUELA: particularly powerful, liqueur aroma, of hazelnut, walnut, almond and cashew, slightly spicy.
